VIVE IT - 4.5.2.504 This is a minimalist raytracer by viveit, which is open source for Windows. It is built to be the most light-weight raytracer available for Windows. Vision - Startup Error in Windows 7 From time to time, the installer / application may fail to start. This is a result of the installer being unable to make the required preparations. February 12, 2012 Pier 17 As you have noticed, I have fallen in love with Twitter again. I have a favorite account that I follow on Twitter, but it is about the mini business blog that was mine, it was high, but now I have a true love that I follow. When I first met my Stabilizer John I was on Twitter and I was talking to a girl that I knew from work. Little did I know, we had been on Twitter all this time, but since we had never met we weren't following each other. But this week John and I ran into each other at Pier 17 in Philadelphia. I said "Nice to see you!" and that was it, you could have knocked me over with a feather. He was so fast to respond. So we had to talk to one another. I didn't really know what to say, but he was the one that made the call to where to go next. So we went to have a drink at Dock Street, which is a cool bar/restaurant right in the South Philly neighborhood. We walked in and were like "oh my gosh, we are going to have a drink?" And I was like "Is this real?" And he said "Hell yeah, we are going to have a drink and we are going to talk." And that is how it all started. John is a big fan of my dad, when John and I met we both loved Dad's books. We each have different interpretations of what they are about, but I know for John they are about "walking together on the journey of life." John told me that he was working at the World Trade Center when it was struck by plane. I was like "You work at the World Trade Center?" And he said "Oh yeah, I was up there." And I was like "What?" And he said "I was in The Tet
