Cast your ballot for the Gold Logie and Red Carpet The Spring Judging process will see the Logie nominees announced on April 22, with our readers able to cast their votes from the comfort of their own homes between May 2 and May 8. Only one winner will be crowned at the ceremony this year, and the winner will receive the ultimate prize package. The winning fan can attend the 2019 Logies live and in person at the Gold Logie Awards on May 9, and earn a prize package from Telstra. Readers of The Gold Logie have already seen the most talented Australian performers up for the award this year. Last year's Gold Logie winner, Guy Sebastian, was the subject of all the attention, as he went on a small public posting spree to promote his new single. Guy Sebastian up close and personal (Picture: Popdust) Sebastian was the subject of much public attention, but he only won the award for his fifth time in Logies history. Debra Byrne was the most recent winner, in 2017. The 2016 winner was Molly Meldrum, who has held the award for eight years in a row. However, the Logies have a revolving door of Gold Logie winners. Fourteen musicians have won the award since it began in 1958, with Mark Ronson the most recent in 2014.
