User comments

- "What I've felt for a long time was missing. Even with lots of people all living together, there wasn't a game where you could create a team and be with people alongside you. With one mission we can do a festival and have fun "
- "I miss that. When you play in a party of 2 or 3 people, there's more of that social interaction. It's kinda like playing a match game and having that missing aspect that's missing from a game that's designed for 2 people. "
