ADVENTURE: CAPTAIN DRAPER'S TREASURE by Allan von Mueckenham If you ever needed proof that pirates have been running about in the middle of history for as long as our species has been around, pirates of yore are beating it out of Barcelona in 1492 with a nation of kids arguing whether to play football or play computer games next. "Try to be more sympathetic," Uhfetchuk cautioned, "we are testing a new technique, one of their air pods," she explained, "so anything could happen." "Oh!" Meem said, "But what if they shoot us down?" "That's what your shield is supposed to protect against," Uhfetchuk explained, "it's not rocket science. It's not very likely, though, trust me." Meem sighed, "I don't, darling. I would no more trust your rocket science than I would trust your navigational skills in the
