Crusader Kings II: Norse Unit Pack is a patch for Crusader Kings II, the grand strategy game from Fatshark and Paradox Development Studio. It adds a number of historical Norse players and an unprecedented number of medieval Norse units. It also sees the arrival of all players from Byzantium, and a Viking federation. Unit Pack is available to all players who have purchased the base game and it requires approximately two days of installation. Features The mod adds six Nordic Christian kingdoms and four Viking federations to the game. All clans are given starting revolts against the Haraldssons, characteristic of Nordic politics. Oresund: Renamed and reorganized Hardrider is turned into Balladistor, enhances the Scandinavian social system and adds Northmen in Thronheim, the same province as Norsemen in the original version of the game. New character subclasses, including a Great Knight, Crossbowmen and catapults. Unchanged character skills, with some general additions to the character system. New unit types including iron-plate archer, pygmy archer, and crusader. New religious buildings. Unchanged nobles, internal institutions.
