El Dorado: July 21 Release, Gear Distributors Strolling through the Elden Ring's biggest city, you find a variety of different companies that sell their wares from various regions. While the games that they sell are those of the Sages, El Dorado comes at the hands of a company called the Gear Distributors. Gear Distributors is the industry leader that sells the most premium products in the Lands Between. Their products not only include sword and sorcery type of items, but also other more vital items that the common person needs. But, Gear Distributors is not some huge corporation. They are just a smaller company at which the business owner, Toria is the manager. Toria has a secret... •

Historical Mystery A mysterious company called Gear Distributors has come to the Lands Between. They have been around for many years and they have a fearsome reputation. No one has seen them personally, but there are rumors of a strange man riding into town with a large group of men at his back. Although it's not entirely clear what his intentions are... •

Adventure to the Ends of the Earth Though Gear

Distributors sell high-quality items, they are not necessarily open to everyone. Even as a distributor, Toria has to go through rigorous procedures to be accepted by the company. The games they sell are high quality, but they are also of limited distribution. To the outside, the company is simple, but there are mysteries about it hidden deep inside, and you want to know what those are. No matter how you look at it, you want to see what it's like in that company, and what is being kept under wraps. •

Character Creation Customize your character by changing the color of your eyebrows, the length of your hair, your clothes, and much more.
