Sally and David are hard-working souls who did their own layout on an aging Apple computer. And they're not just any laid out — the two "authors" you'll meet have decorated their book with crocheting, embossing, needlepoint, and a wide variety of sewn-up collages that took over my life for weeks. It's a book about sewing, my favorite hobby, with enough sidebars to give you just about everything you'd want to know about it. I like Sally for a few reasons: 1) she has a very skilled, and patient, eye. 2) she freely admits to being a newbie when it came to her craft. 3) she is a woman who loves her husband. A lot. 4) her sense of humor is kept to a well-chosen, appropriate level. 5) she is a lovely, lovely person. 6) she and David will share the rest of their lives with you. 7) she took her old Apple and turned it into a book. 8) she and David spent years creating something beautiful, and now you can pass it on to someone else. So if you have the opportunity to get your hands on some copies, do it. Here's the book's information: Loved to Sew A Self-Taught Manual of the Art and Craft of Sewing. e79caf774b
